

BOARD OF DIRECTORS – BIOS’ 2011- 2012

JoAnn Asparagus

JoAnn lives in McDaniel with her husband, Vernon Murrayl. JoAnn is Domestic Relations Master in the Caroline County Circuit Court. She is a member of the Bar Association in both Caroline and Talbot counties. She is also a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. JoAnn is a past member of the Talbot County Board of Education and currently is a trustee for the Country School, vice president of the John Quinton Foundation, and an advisory board member of the Family and Friends of Asbury and Green Chapel, Inc. JoAnn is also a member of New St. Johns United Methodist Church, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and the Talbot County Branch of the NAACP.

Kim Cassady

Treasurer

Kim lives in Royal Oak with his wife, Linda. He is now retired having worked as a business manager at both DuPont and the Kulicke & Soffa Industries. Kim is a member of the M.I.T. Club of Delaware Valley. He presently serves on the board at the Presbyterian Church of Easton and has served on boards for the Green Hill Presbyterian Church in Wilmington, Delaware and the Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh, PA. Kim is a member of the following Habitat Choptank committees: Executive, Faith Relations, and Finance (Chair) and he is a construction volunteer on the Tuesday Crew.

Stephen R. Clineburg

President

Steve and his wife Lin live in St. Michaels. Steve is retired, having served as Senior Vice President and Regional General Counsel for Boston Properties, Inc. He is a member of the Virginia State Bar. Steve has previously served as President of the Columbia College Club of Washington, D.C. and on the vestry at St. Peters Church in Arlington, Virginia. He is a member of the following Habitat committees: Executive (President), Resource Development and Site Selection and can be found from time to time swinging a hammer on one of Habitat Choptank’s building sites.

Edward P. Colaprete, Jr. LEED AP

Ed works as Senior Architect with EBI Consulting. He holds a BA in Architecture from Iowa State University. Ed is a member of Habitat Choptank’s Building Committee and represents that group on the Site Selection Committee. Over the last years, he has utilized his skills and training as a LEED Accredited Professional to integrate sustainable, green building practices into our affordable home building program helping Habitat build homes that are affordable in both purchase price and long term operating costs. Ed, his wife Lois and their two daughters make their home in Cambridge.

Rev. Keith Cornish

Keith and his wife, Brenda, live in Madison. Keith serves as the Pastor of the Christ United Methodist Church of Aries and is an active member of the Good Shepherd Association. He also works in the maintenance department at the Mushroom Company. In the community, he has served as a member of the board of directors for Morning Star (Vision Quest) and on the Minority Achievement Task Force with Dorchester County Public Schools.

Judann Culver

Judann is the Senior Vice President and Compliance Officer with The National Bank of Cambridge. In 2011, she was nominated and approved by peer Bank Compliance Professionals to serve on the Maryland Banker’s Association’s 2010-2012 Regulatory Affairs Committee. That same year she also completed the American Bankers Association’s Intermediate Compliance School and the Graduate School of Compliance in Risk Management. Judann holds a Masters of Business of Administration. She lives in Trappe with her husband and two children.

James B. (“Dick”) Deerin*Immediate Past President*

Dick and his wife, Susan, live in Oxford. Before retiring at the end of 2009, he was Executive Vice President/COO of Decorating Den Systems, Inc. Describing himself as a “recovering lawyer”, Dick is a member of the bars of Virginia, Maryland and D.C. He is also on the Board of the Oxford Community Center, and serves as a CASA volunteer. He is a member of the following Habitat Choptank Committees: Executive, Finance, Nominating (Chair), Resource Development and Site Selection, and works as a construction volunteer on the Thursday Crew.

David J. DeLuca*Vice President*

David, his wife Melissa and their son live in Cambridge. David is the President of Delco Packaging Products located in Hurlock. He is a graduate of Leadership Maryland. Dave is the current President of the Dorchester County Chamber of Commerce. In the community, he has served as a member of the Superintendent’s Advisory Council for the Dorchester Board of Education, as a member of the board for the Richardson Museum, and on the Pastoral Council for the St. Mary’s Refuge of Sinners. Dave serves on the following Habitat committees: Executive (Vice-President), Nominating, and Site Selection.

Julie Fox

Julie and her husband George live in Cambridge. Julie is the broker and owner of Re/Max on the Bay located in downtown Cambridge. Julie is a member the Dorchester Chorus, Quota International of Cambridge, the Dorchester Chamber of Commerce and Main Street – Cambridge. She is the past president of the Mid-Shore Board of Realtors and has served as a member of the legislative, awards and by-laws committees. She serves on the Site Selection Committee for Habitat Choptank.

Michael S. Hiner

Mike and his wife Terri live in Easton. Mike is the President of Willow Construction, LLC and is a member of the Associated Builders and Contractors. Mike is a past board member for the Talbot County Chamber of Commerce and The Chesapeake College Foundation. He is active in the Rotary Club of Easton, and is a member of the St. Paul’s Lutheran Church Council. Mike serves on the Faith Relations Committee (Chair) for Habitat Choptank.

Horace M. Lowman, Jr.

Horace is the First Vice President – Wealth Management and Branch Manager with Morgan Stanley Smith Barney in the Easton office. He has previously served as chief financial officer and director of operations for Legg Mason, Inc. Horace is a member of the Maryland Association of CPA’s and holds an AB in Accounting from Franklin and Marshall. He currently serves on the Cooke’s Hope Homeowners Association and is a past member of the Maryland Artists Equity Foundation, past Council President of First Evangelical Lutheran Church in Ellicott City, and past Treasurer of the Arthritis Foundation of Maryland. Horace and his wife Helena live in Easton.

Charles Mangold, Jr.

Chuck lives in Easton with his wife, Lauren and their three sons. He is a realtor/broker for Benson and Mangold Real Estate. Chuck has served on the boards of several organizations including The United Fund of Talbot County, The Country School, the Talbot County Chamber of Commerce and the State of Maryland Chamber of Commerce. Chuck serves on the ReStore Committee for Habitat Choptank.

William D. McDonnell

A resident of Cambridge, Bill has served as the Director of the Director of Social Services for over 12 years. Prior to moving back to Maryland, Bill worked as the Director of Social Services in Onslow County, North Carolina. He holds a Masters of Social Work from the University of Maryland at Baltimore. Bill was actively involved in the start-up of the Dorchester County Habitat for Humanity branch. When Dorchester and Talbot joined together as a regional effort, Bill joined the Board of the two-county affiliate. Bill is a past president of the Dorchester County Boys & Girls Club and currently serves on the Dorchester Local Management Board.

Rev. Abigail Crozier Nestlehutt

Abigail lives in St. Michaels with her husband, the Reverend Mark Nestlehutt and their two children. Abigail is an Episcopal Priest and assists at Trinity Cathedral on Sunday mornings. She has served as a member of the board of Cathedral Shelter in Chicago, Illinois and was Vice President of the Board of Freedom Rowers. Abigail serves on the Faith Relations Committee for Habitat Choptank.

Jeffrey Pritchett

Jeff and his wife, Cory, live in Cambridge. He is the Director of Accounting at Quality Health Strategies/Delmarva Foundation for Medical Care. Jeff is a Certified Public Accountant in the State of Maryland. He is a past member of both the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Maryland Association of Certified Accountants. He has also served as a member of the Board of Trustees and as the Audit Chair for the B.P.O.E. #1272. Jeff is also a member of the Finance Committee for Habitat Choptank.

Aly J. Valentine

Secretary

Aly lives in Royal Oak with her husband, Roger and works for the University of Maryland Extension as the Area Extension Director for Queen Anne, Kent and Cecil Counties. She is a graduate of the 2010 Class of Shore Leadership and is a past member of the Stephen Ministry Leadership team at Christ Church in St. Michaels. Aly is the Past President of the Board of PageTurners: Girls Who Read to Achieve. She currently serves on the Executive Committee (Secretary) for Habitat Choptank and chairs the Habitat Golf Outing Committee.

Myron D. Walker

Myron lives in St. Michaels with his wife, Sara. Myron is retired from Marriott International Inc. having served as the Senior Vice President and Deputy General Counsel. He has been a member of the District of Columbia and Maryland Bar Associations. He has served as the chairman of the board for the Potomac Valley League of Montgomery County and as the chairman of the American Hotel Association General Counsel Committee. Myron serves on the Site Selection Committee (Chair) for Habitat Choptank.

Greg M. Whitten

Greg, of Whitten Insurance and Financial Services, has been a Nationwide Agent since 1983. Throughout his career, he has earned numerous designations and awards with Nationwide as a top performer. The company has been ranked seven times as in the top 10 of the nearly 4,000 Nationwide Insurance agencies in the United States and number one among the over 700 Nationwide agencies in Maryland, Delaware and Virginia. Greg holds a BS in Business Administration from Salisbury State University. He is a native of Dorchester County and lives in Secretary where he and his family attend First United Methodist Church.